

I am an avid listener of radio station "K-LOVE" 94.3 in the Chicagoland area and am very concerned and upset that the FCC would consider displacing this radio station with LPFM radio. KLOVE operates as a not-for-profit outreach service of which I have personally used its many services on more than one occasion. Not having this radio and its ministry and services would be detrimental to the Chicagoland community as there are no other stations of this nature. This radio station intentionally reaches out to individuals of all backgrounds & cultures offering inspiring and uplifting music as well as numerous services such as counseling referrals, etc...
